And the best part is not only the 24/7 availability, but also there is no job too big or too small for this company!

Quality and consistency have been at the core of 24/7 PERFECT CLEANING since Razy Jacobs opened the business years ago. With his background in the hospitality and restaurant business, Razy knows the importance of the client always being right and of providing prompt, consistent and efficient service. Whenever you need to get your residence or your business cleaned, Razy is the one to call. The owner answers all the calls and provides personalized attention to each of his customers.

"I was in the restaurant business for many years and that is where I learned the value of great customer service, quality and consistency. I came up with the idea of opening a cleaning business after I had realized the tremendous demand for this type of service. 99 percent of my clients would always ask me if I could recommend them a good and reliable cleaning person," said Razy.

And now he can. Unlike big franchise companies, 24/7 PERFECT CLEANING has maintained its personalized touch and exemplary customer service to each of their clients. Razy's cleaning professionals are all licensed, bonded and insured, all of them being former housekeeping supervisors at major hotel chains.

Each job is treated with special gloves. His staff is always on hand to make sure your home or business is looking clean and pristine. They also only use the best state-of-the-art cleaning supplies and Dyson vacuum cleaners.

"Big chain companies lose that special touch with customers. With 24/7 PERFECT CLEANING, the success is in the details. We are not only about providing consistency and quality for the best cleaning, but most importantly we are about offering you the time and the peace of mind in order for you to better and improve the quality of your life," said Razy, adding, "I am always available to my clients, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. If they have any concerns or questions, they can reach me directly. With my past experience, I know the importance of great quality customer service."

Over the years, Razy has come to call his clients family. "I have created a bond with my clients. You get to be part of their life. I enjoy seeing their faces light up and watching them smile when their home or business is sparkling clean," said Razy, who is a firm believer in giving back to the community who helped him build his business.
